

Hi Everyone,
Just a reminder about the next meeting next week.
I have found a few possibles to go to in March.

Leamington

Leamington Lights of Leamington An eclectic exhibition selected and curated by Birmingham based artist Stuart Whipps.
2 self guided tours around Leamington.

Coventry

New Art West Midlands Looking at the Region's emerging artistic talent.
Pop! British and American Art 1960 -1975

Explore how art found its POP! in this transatlantic showcase of the movement's most iconic artists.

Andy Warhol, Roy Lichtenstein, Peter Blake, Pauline Boty and others, arrived on the scene in a riot of colour, with no manifesto or shared aims, absorbing and borrowing from popular culture as they went, and challenging notions of originality and what it meant to create art.

The classic Pop Art on show include an eight-metre-long fighter plane by James Rosenquist, Andy Warhol's Campbell's Soup tin, a lament for Marilyn Monroe by Pauline Boty, Joe Tilson's iconic images of Che Guevara and prints by Peter Blake.

Featuring recognisable works from both sides of the Atlantic, this exciting exhibition offers an insight into the modern age's most important art movement.

Please bring anything you think may be interesting.

I wondered if we could talk about sharing out some of the research for our visits. Perhaps 1/2 people could undertake looking for things in a specific place e.g. Herbert art Gallery, Leamington, Birmingham Museum and Art Gallery, Barber institute of Fine Arts (university), Leicester Museum and art gallery and any where else.

See you next week.

Irene
